199 Years and Counting: Hugh Gardner (1844-1921), my father was an honest and upright Christian. Honesty was one of his strongest virtues. During the Panic of 1873, he bought rags to augment the income from farming. One night he found he had accidentally short-changed a woman for a few pennies. That evening, since he felt his team would be too tired to make the trip to the woman's house and then go on the route the next day, he walked the 3 or 4 miles to her home to make it right. He did this rather than correct the error on his next stop at her home – Ruth (Gardner) McGinnis (1888-1982)
